CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be immediately put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

2.—The advance in the biddings to be regulated by the auctioneer, who is to be the sole arbitrator in any matter of dispute. The auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to refuse any bidding, and to sell in such order as they may think proper, to consolidate two or more lots and to bid on behalf of the vendor.

3.—The purchasers to declare their names and places of abode, and if required, at the fall of the hammer, to pay the full amount of the purchase-money, or, at the option of the auctioneer, a deposit of 5s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, which deposit shall be applied to the whole of the lots purchased and not to any individual lot, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be paid immediately after the sale and before the delivery of the lot or lots.

4.—The lots to be at the purchaser's risk immediately they are sold and shall be cleared away with all faults, deficiencies and imperfections, and errors of description by the purchaser at his expense, between the hours of TEN a.m. and FOUR p.m. on FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13th, 1918. To avoid mistakes, no lot must on any account whatever be taken away during the time of sale unless delivered by the person appointed for that purpose.

5.—The descriptions given of the various lots are for the information only of intending purchasers, and although they are believed to be correct, are not in any case given as a warranty. The auctioneers acting only as agents for the vendors shall not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of either purchaser or vendors. The purchaser of any lot or lots will be held liable for any damage done to the premises by the careless removal of such lots, and the damage must be reinstated at the purchaser's expense, to the satisfaction of the auctioneer. All lots are sold as laid or fixed, and must be removed by the purchasers at their own expense, and no other parts of the fixtures than those actually specified in the catalogue be removed or damaged.

6.—The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list plates, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix or plates. All the manuscripts and autographs, all periodicals, transactions, magazines and reviews, all books in lots and tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of descriptions. The sale of any lots of prints or drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.

LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money so deposited in part payment shall be forfeited. The lot or lots not cleared within the time specified shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any), together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this sale, who shall have no claim to any surplus. Should any question arise not provided for in the above conditions, the same shall be referred to the auctioneers, whose decision shall be final.

N.B.—No Lots will be transferred. No Cheques taken.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Purchasers will oblige the Auctioneer by filling in this slip and handing it to his Clerk with a deposit on making the first purchase.
